

Payment Acceptance

Receive payments from your clients easily online via various services that are offered by QNB ALAHLI.

I. Point of Sale (POS)

- Accept payments electronically from your clients with their debit/credit /prepaid cards via the portable POS terminals and the mini POS machines supported with the Contactless technology.
- Availability of QR code on the bank's POS machines for electronic wallets payments
- E-merchant / Portal service will enable you to manage and follow up on the accounts of POS machines and QR service to accept payments, in addition to the possibility to print an account statement
- Install all purchase transactions for QNB ALAHLI credit cardholders through installment programs up to 36 months
- Request to pay service will enable you to send a payment request to your client and receive the payment through the QR code

II. E-Commerce

- Accept payments online through a secured payment gateway that is technically integrated with your online store whether through company's website or mobile application
- Accept a wide variety of payment methods from your clients through all payment cards and the E-wallets around the clock
- Manage and follow up on the accounts in addition to the ability to print an account statement through the Portal service
- Send a payment request to your client and receive the payment through the e-commerce service via the Request to pay service

To know more, please scan the QR Code:

To enjoy the benefits of the services, please contact your account manager to request a subscription.
For more information call 19700 or WhatsApp 0020219700

Terms and conditions apply

Tax registration number: 204-899-052