Revising Estimates to Account for Higher Provisions

Doha Bank is Qatar's 3rd largest conventional bank with a market share of ~8% in loans and deposits, respectively (5th largest among all listed banks). DHBK was known for solely being a retail bank with retail loans representing ~42% of its loan book in 2008. However, the bank has shifted its strategy by tapping other sectors of the economy such as contracting and real estate. As of FY2015, loans to contractors made up ~17% of its loan portfolio vs. ~10% in 2008. During the same period, retail loans dropped from ~42% to ~19%. The bank has recently become more cautious about lending to contractors; it plans to target prime contractors as opposed to subcontractors. Going forward, DHBK intends on approaching contractors with a consortium of banks rather than engage in bilateral lending.

Highlights

- DHBK reported flat bottom-line in 2Q2016, led by a sharp drop in provisions. Doha Bank (DHBK) reported a net profit of QR354.2mn in 2Q2016, implying flat performance and in-line with our estimate of QR348.0mn (variance of +1.8%). However, on a YoY basis, the net profit declined 7.1%. The bank's flat performance was led by a 48.4% drop in provisions. Pre-provision income was down by 11.6% QoQ to QR416.2mn.
- NIMs remained under pressure. DHBK posted net interest income of QR523.6mn in 2Q2016 (in-line with our estimate of QR514.0mn; +1.9% variation), increasing by 1.0% QoQ (+4.7% YoY). The bank's NIMs remained under pressure, declining by 3bps and 15bps to ~2.66% QoQ and YoY, respectively. We still expect NIMs to continue its negative trajectory due to an increase in cost of funds as DHBK competes for deposits. Our net interest income forecasts for 2016, 2017 and 2018 remains broadly unchanged at QR2.10mn, 2.19mn and 2.32mn, respectively.
- Opex to remain subdued in the short to medium term. Opex increased by 10.9% QoQ (+7.7% YoY) to QR272.6mn. Hence the efficiency ratio increased to 39.6% vs. 34.3% in 1Q2016 (37.1% in 2Q2015). However, we expect the bank to manage costs during these weak market conditions. As such we pencil in growth of 2.7%, 3.9% and 6.2% for 2016, 2017 and 2018, respectively. During this time we estimate the cost-to-income ratio to average 36.9%. We do not foresee this ratio dropping back to the lower 30s (%) in the near future.
- NPL ratio improved. The bank's NPLs dropped by 16.8% QoQ to QR1.66mn, while the NPL ratio decreased to 2.89% vs. 3.38% in 1Q2016 (3.26% in FY2015). It seems that the improvement in the NPL ratio is due to write-offs to the tune of ~QR300mn. Nevertheless, we expect further deterioration in asset quality and maintain. We now expect the NPL ratio to reach 3.00% in 2016 (3.65% previously), followed by 3.15% in 2017 and 3.30% in 2018.
- Liquidity improved. Net loans declined by 2.5% QoQ and 0.3% YTD to QR55.4bn. On the other hand deposits gained by 1.9% QoQ (down 0.7% YTD) to QR52.4bn. As such the bank's LDR improved, declining to 106% vs. 111% in 1Q2016 (105% in FY2015). It appears that the bank is working on improving its liquidity position. We now expect loans to grow by 4.9% in 2016. Our estimates for 2017 and 2018 remain unchanged at 7.8% and 9.9%, respectively.

Catalysts

- Beyond a stabilization/recovery in oil prices, the following developments could be perceived positively by the market: 1) Clarity on capital raising could act as a further catalyst, 2) better execution of the bank's strategy and 4) a reduced DPS of QR2.50 in 2016 (vs. QR3.00 in 2015), still implying an attractive dividend yield of 6.8%.

Recommendation, Valuation and Risks

- Recommendation and valuation: We change our Price Target to QR42.00 vs. QR47.00 previously; maintain Accumulate rating. Our change in the price target is due to a lower RoE (12.8%) than we previously forecasted (13.1%). DHBK is trading at a 2016e P/B and P/E of 1.0x and 8.7x, respectively. The stock trades at an expensive PEG of 1.4x
- Risks: 1) Depressed oil prices remains the biggest risk for DHBK and the banking sector and 2) Exposure to the retail & contracting segments create concentration risk.

The changes to our bottom-line is mainly due to account for higher provisions. We now forecast provisions & impairments at QR508mn in 2016 (QR477mn previously), QR515mn in 2017 (QR505mn previously) and QR505mn (QR503mn previously). Moreover, we model in CoR of 64bps, 66bps and 62bps in 2016, 2017 and 2018, respectively.
