Fund Manager Comment

Market environment

MENA equities, represented by the S&P Pan Arab Composite Large Midcap index gained 2.37% in the reporting month. Relative to global markets, Mena equities outperformed MSCI World by 99 bps. Global equity markets extended gains in July as trade tensions cooled off following a 90-day pause from the US administration; MSCI World index gained 1.36%; developed market equities represented by the S&P 500 finished 2.30% while emerging market equities presented by MSCI EM index gained 0.50%. The Bloomberg Commodity Index shed 0.82%. Brent crude oil prices gained 8.68%.

Portfolio performance

The fund marginally underperformed its benchmark primarily due to selection effects. The fund gained relative performance from stock selection effect in Saudi Arabia, Qatar and Morocco markets. While Kuwait and UAE were the biggest contributor to negative relative performance. From a sector perspective, the biggest contributors to relative performance were Materials, Utilities and Communication Services. While Real Estate and Consumer Staples were the biggest contributors to negative relative performance.

Outlook

Mena equity markets have underperformed global equity market peers in the 2024 due to increased geopolitical risk, higher interest rates and weakening global commodity prices. Global commodity prices are influenced by slowing global demand outlook and increased supply following the normalization of supply chains. Crude oil prices remained range bound for most of 2024 as OPEC+ kept the market well supplied to meet demand. Mena market fundamentals are undemanding with earnings growth at lower single digit growth. Improvement in the geopolitical situation is key to unlocking investor confidence to commit capital that could spur corporate earnings growth
